

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Partnership for Children recognizes Jackson and Sons for Contribution

Charles Ivey (r), Executive Director of The Partnership for Children of Wayne County, presents a Certificate of Appreciation to David Jackson (l) and Danny Jackson (m) of Jackson and Sons, naming the company A Child's Champion for their $1000 contribution to The Partnership to support programming for early childhood education.

For almost twenty years The Partnership continues to be a major resource in our County for parents and caregivers, ensuring that our children receive the best start during their formative years. Together, The Partnership and companies such as Jackson and Sons help to prepare for our County's future workforce and the leaders of tomorrow.
