

Year in Review!

2022-2023 is in the books! We appreciate everyone who has helped in our success!

Here are some highlights:

- We began our new family support program, Circle of Parents.
- 41,326 books were distributed via Dolly Parton's Imagination Library.
- 3,680 books were distributed through our Little Libraries.
- We held 2 successful fundraisers: Lobster & Shrimp Fest and Touch A Truck.
- We welcomed 4 new staff members to the Partnership team.
- Hosted 3 "Think Babies" events to discuss the issues as it pertains to Infant/Toddler care in Wayne County.
- Participated in numerous community events.
- Continued our work with Farm to Early Care.

Farm to EC

Farm to ECE

Our Farm to ECE intern, Mary Michael Wood has been working with various child care facilities on promoting healthy eating. This lesson she talked about blueberries with Little Buck Swamp child care. They listened to a story about delicious blueberries and did a blueberry craft!

Safe Kids

Josh the Baby Otter helps promote water safety! A tale promoting water safety for children. This is the story of a newly born otter named Josh and how he learns to float and swim with the help of some new friends. Josh's mother Clare explains why it is so important for children to stay away from water unless they are with an adult.
